We Are In Debt To Our Neighbors

June 4, 1959

Attention Editor:

The operations of the Blood Program will close its 1958 fiscal year on June 30.

Carmel Chapter participates in the blood drawing effort along with nine other Chapters in four surrounding Counties. Each Chapter is charged with supplying blood for use in the hospital or hospitals in its area in the amount used in those institutions.

Our records reveal that to date in the current fiscal year Carmel is 156 pints short of the blood actually used at Peninsula Community Hospital and the Carmel pro-rata share of that used at Monterey County Hospital.

The Carmel Chapter is calling for help from the citizens of its area—Carmel, Carmel Valley, Hatton Fields, Mission Fields, Carmel Highlands, and Pebble Beach—to make up the deficit at the last blood drawing of the year to be held June 11.

What many of our local citizens fail to realize is that any one of them is supplied blood in any amount necessary at no cost to them. This means that the amount of blood used in excess of that donated here was given by the good citizens of Santa Cruz, Hollister, San Jose, Gilroy, King City, Monterey, Salinas or Saratoga. The Carmel Chapter is very anxious to supply its own share of blood used and firmly believes this is possible, with the cooperation of its public spirited and mercy conscious citizens.

The continuing pleas of the Chapter have gone unheeded because people forget, or are too busy, or are afraid to be blood donors. But if any of the citizenry needed blood in New York ($100 per pint) or San Francisco ($34.50 per pint) or Oakland ($25.00 per pint) they would soon appreciate the local effort wherein blood is available to all at no cost. And blood can be given locally to replace that used elsewhere, thereby allowing a refund of whatever the cost at the point of use. These facts, of course, are best appreciated by those persons who have been unfortunate enough to require use of blood elsewhere and in some cases have had several hundred dollars refunded to them. Since any one of us could at any time have a similar experience, the Chapter urges the good people of Carmel to help remove the deficit in the local supply.

Remember, June 11, at the Carmel Red Cross from 10:00 to 1:30 o'clock and everybody welcome between the ages of 18-60.

P. I. Chairman

TIM O'SHEA CAR SMASH-UP

Tim O'Shea, 19, received minor injuries early this morning when his car overturned after he swerved to avoid hitting a raccoon on the Carmel Valley Road.

According to the California Highway Patrol report, O'Shea was driving west on Carmel Valley Road when a raccoon crossed in front of his car. He swerved, lost control of his foreign made station wagon, went across and off the road and overturned.

Mrs. Ansel (Etta C.) Fletcher celebrated her ninety-sixth birthday on May 29. She is a member of the Carmel Republican Women's Club. During the day, Mrs. Karl W. Hisgen, president of the club, called to wish Mrs. Fletcher a happy birthday and to present her with an American flag. Last year on her birthday, the club made Mrs. Fletcher a life member.

Mrs. Fletcher was born in Salina, Iowa, in 1863 during the Civil War. Abraham Lincoln was president of the United States. She voted for the first time in Marshalltown, Iowa, in 1928, casting her vote for Herbert Hoover.

Grover Cleveland's administration is the one Mrs. Fletcher recalls best. She says that after watching this country develop and grow she feels strongly "that women have contributed to all that is good and great in America."

Asked her opinion of world conditions today, especially in America, Mrs. Fletcher replied to Mrs. Hisgen, "Women must continue their efforts for good government; guide the welfare of our children; continue to make spiritual life, the home and an alert interest in elected political representatives their duties."

Mrs. Fletcher lives at Fourteenth and Monte Verde Streets. In her sunny patio, bright with flowers, she sits daily and reminisces about much that has happened since her birth during the Lincoln administration.

At the end of the birthday visit Mrs. Fletcher took Mrs. Hisgen's hand and offered a prayer for guidance for this country, and that we remember our forefathers who gave much to make it the great and strong nation it is today. She asked especially in her prayer that President Eisenhower be blessed with years of good health and a genuine peace of mind.

Carmel Scouts Stop Forest Fire In Pinnacles Monument

Quick action by three Carmel Troop 32 Boy Scouts and a Cub Scout on Sunday prevented a forest fire in Pinnacles National Monument, according to Ranger Bob Ramstead. Scouts Glenn Kovacevich, Edward Neroda and Cub Scout Scott Beard under the direction of Senior Scout Rick Baldwin controlled a grass fire, which started 100 yards above the road near their weekend campsite, until Rangers arrived with fire-fighting equipment, then the Scouts became waterboys.

Audience Had Fun At "Exhaustion" Council Meeting

Last night was audience night at the regular city council meeting. From 7:45 o'clock, when Mayor John Chitwood opened the meeting until 11:00 o'clock, when exhaustion demanded a 10 minute recess, the audience which filled the chambers expressed its individual opinions on all but the most routine matters, differed with the council members, differed with one another, burst into applause for speakers on both sides of a question, and then went happily home at the 11:00 o'clock intermission, leaving the council to transact the city business until 12:30 o'clock.

Admiral C. W. Fisher wanted an interim ordinance controlling bulk of business building and size of site, with a view to deterring chain store operation; so did Councilman Norberg and Councilman May. It will be taken up at the June 15 joint planning commission, council meeting.

Some of the audience wanted the city council to support the area planning commission and a Peninsula master plan, at a cost of $750 a year for two years. Speaking in favor: Mrs. Charlotte Clark, Mrs. Ben Spellar, Admiral C. W. Fisher, Col. S. A. DeCamp, Will Shaw, Patricia Hall, Francis Whitaker. Against: Josephine Root, Capt. Henry Gleason, Mrs. Raymond Mapstead.

The council was divided, Norberg and Allen Knight opposing; Mayor Chitwood and Councilman May in favor. James Buffington not saying much. No action. The area planning commission hasn't asked for the money yet. Letters favoring the area plan from the League of Women Voters and the Citizens Planning Association precipitated the discussion which lasted from 10:10 to 11:00 o'clock.

Knight and May did not approve the city's extending fire protection to Junipero Serra School, just outside the city limits. It would discourage formation of a fire district in Carmel Unincorporated, said Knight. May thought some deal should be made with the county, about exchange of protection. (Continued on Page Fourteen)

May Presents Atomic Plan Tax Reduction

Last night at City Council meeting, Councilman Tom May painted a disastrous picture and then proposed a remedy.

The picture: Carmel city property owners swamped in rising school and county taxes; Carmel merchants hurt by competition from proposed Carmel Valley mouth shopping center.

The remedy: Reduce city property taxes by 62 cents. This would make the city more attractive to the outlying areas and might result in annexation, a broader tax base, and control over the shopping center.

Reassessment Team To Work Over Carmel And Unincorp. Area

Starting Monday, eight assessor's deputies, working in four two-man teams will undertake reappraisal of Carmel and Carmel Unincorporated land and improvement values for tax purposes, according to Charles Stewart, county assessor.

It is part of an over-all county reappraisal, said Mr. Stewart. Large parts of the county have already been reappraised.

The job of reappraising 2600 pieces of property in the City of Carmel, and 1800 in the adjacent areas will require from three to four months.

The changes on the assessment role will not be effective until 1960-61, Mr. Stewart says. He adds that in cases of substantial increase in assessment, the property owner will be notified and have a chance to talk things over with the assessor.

Gunnar Casts Greedy Eyes On Library's Adney Inheritance

Somewhere between 12:00 and 12:30 o'clock at last night's exhaustion city council meeting, Councilman Gunnar Norberg, displaying uncharacteristic cupidity for real estate, suggested that the Carmel library be not allowed to sell the two residential lots left to them by the late Francis Adney. The lots should be kept for the city. The city needs property, he stated.

The mayor and city attorney explained that the gift was to the library, and the city couldn't grab the library's lots, even if it wanted to, and dug out a city ordinance to prove it.

The ordinance provides that the council appoint the library trustees, and fix and collect the library tax but that's all. The library is under the jurisdiction of its trustees.

The library has been receiving and keeping gifts for years, including priceless etchings, land, buildings, paintings, Weston prints, rare books and money for purchase of books.

City engineer Clayton Neill, one time library board chairman, said the library had always understood it operated independently, and that was the meaning of the ordinance.

Norberg wanted to know who passed the ordinance in the first place.

The city council, of course, he was told.

"If the city council passed the ordinance, the city council can repeal it," said Gunnar.

"If you want to repeal this or (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Sports Car Races Saturday, Sunday At Laguna Seca

Over 180 contestants have registered, included are three Carmel men: Ray Ramsey, driving a Porsche, Ed Leslie, Austin-Healy, 100-6; and John P. Kunstle, a Lotus. Other Peninsula entrants are: Dick Hilgers, Monterey, a Morgan; Earl D. Grafton, Pacific Grove, an man, Pacific Grove, Volvo-Special FM.

This year the drivers will be racing against a specified time limit, rather than cut time on a specified number of laps.

There are two entrances to the track, one off the Salinas highway; the other off Canyon Del Rey Road. Tickets may be obtained at the gates. Food and drink are available at the track at booths manned by the various service organizations of the Peninsula for the benefit of their special projects and charities.

CRICKET CLUB DEFEATS SAN MATEO, 71 TO 64

Picking up power, finesse, and bowling strength with every outing Carmel's Del Monte Cricket Club looked all over a champion last Sunday as it topped the strong San Mateo Club at the Carmel High School field. Ken Allen proved to be a brilliant addition to the Del Monte bowling department as he doled out 30 runs while taking seven wickets. Besides an adept job of bowling, the nuclear research expert from the University of California scored 45 runs to pace the Del Monte bat wielders. San Mateo's David Gardner shuttled the pitch for 28 runs but his fine effort wasn't enough to offset the well-balanced attack furnished by the Del Monte cricketers.

Next Sunday Del Monte travels to San Rafael to test the undefeated Marin Cricket Club. A win over Marin would establish the local club as one of the strongest teams in Northern California.

94 PADRES EARN SPRING SPORTS AWARDS

Carmel High School's annual spring awards assembly saw 94 boys receive letters for participation in swimming, track, baseball, and golf. This tops all previous records for participation in spring sports, and the performers have established some solid records for future Padres to shoot at. Top individual performance has to be Phil White's 13-1½ pole vault record which he established at the North Coast Section Meet and equalled in the State Meet at Bakersfield. White placed third in the State Meet, upsetting some of Southern California's highly-rated vaulters. Top team effort goes to Paul Morlang's swimming squad which won the CCAL Meet, beating the big A-division schools to cop the title.

Varsity track lettermen are Pat Boyle, Fred Bucher, Doyle Clayton, Bud Conroy, Al Dahlstrand, Dave Farr, Joe Foster, Pete Hanson, Bill Harder, Bill Hicks, Bill Kearney, Bob Kimball, Hal Gregerson, Frank Mayo, Dennis Peavey, Paul Rice, Craig Smith, Charley Todd, Bill True, Nick Vertin, Dave Vincent, Frank Wallace, Phil White, and Russ Wise. Award winners in lightweight track were Joe Zoellin, Jon Raggett, Frank Preve, Lee Oleson, Dan Moore, Jim O'Brien, Nick Molitor, Bill King, Gerharte Galmus, Rick Fraser, Gary Clay, Wylie Bryant, and Manager Harold Faulkner.

Golfers scoring enough points to qualify for block letters were Larry Cope, Brook Scherman, Dyer Drake, and Andy Horning.

CARMEL BABE RUTH TEAM DROPS OPENER TO MONTEREY MERCHANTS

Manager Bob Henny's Carmel entry in the Peninsula Babe Ruth League put up a valiant effort in its opening game last Saturday afternoon but lost out to a brilliant one-hitter thrown by Monterey High's Bruce Von Hoff. Monterey picked up three runs on four hits, three hit batters, and three infield miscues. Forrest Cornwall, Carmel High freshman, pitched for the village nine and showed good stuff over the seven-inning route. The slender right-hander struck out 12 Merchant swingers and granted no bases on balls. David Rosenkranz, a graduate of the Boys' Town Little League team, was the only Carmel lad to solve the tricky slants of Van Hoff, stroking a single in the third frame.

This Saturday afternoon at the Carmel High School diamond, the Carmel Babe Ruthers play host to the Monterey Labor Council nine. Manager Henny has indicated that he will throw righthander Jim Brown against the Labor Council in an effort to get his unit on the victory trail.

LITTLE LEAGUE SECOND HALF UNDERWAY

With the first half championship firmly in the clutches of the San Carlos Agency nine, Carmel Little League's second round play started this week with all the teams setting their sights on the high-flying realtors. Pilot Market finished the first half in second place, playing to a tie with Wilder & Jones to earn the runner-up spot. This was one of the best games of the season with good pitching and hitting on both sides. George Thaler and Kim Roberts, W & J hurlers, hooked up with Tim Mosolf and George Dubets, Pilot flingers, both sides throwing steady seven-hit ball. Greg Jones and Jose Fernandez supplied the bat power for the plumbies, Greg hitting 2 for 4 and Fernandez blasting a third-inning home run. Ronnie Parsons, Tim Fry and Tim Mosolf swung big bats for the grocers, each getting two hits, one a grand-slammer by pitcher Mosolf.

Turner & McEldowney got off to a good start in second half play with a 13-3 win over George Macy's Boy's Town aggregation. Don Canham's T & M squad has been hitting with real power in recent outings and will be a serious threat for the second half title. Jerry Oleson pitched steady ball against the clothiers, giving up six hits and four walks. Ron Berry and pitcher Oleson lead the bricklayers in the hitting department, each getting two safe blows. Mike Paul and Steve Trapkus were the big guns for the losers, Steve clouting a home run and a double and Paul stroking a double and single. Tom Leutzinger, Gerald Pullen, and Maynard Petersen shared the pitching chores for Boys' Town.

Jack Miller's first half champs, San Carlos Agency, got off winging in defense of the first round title by clipping the dangerous Pilot gang, 5 to 3, with Jeff Zils notching the win for the realtors. The winners greeted Pilot hurler, Tim Mosolf, for nine hits with six of them coming in a big four-run fifth inning. Mike Faber and Bobby Moffatt topped the San Carlos hitters, Faber hitting 3 for 3 and Moffatt getting 2 for 3. Ronnie Parsons and Tim Fry each had a pair of hits to lead the Pilot swingers.

Tonight's Little League play matches Wilder & Jones with Turner & McEldowney and Friday's action has Boys' Town going against Art Carpenter's Pilot Market nine. Saturday's Farm Team schedule has Little Sparrows hooking up with Special Delivery at 10 a.m., Village Inn testing Whitney's Restaurant at 12 Noon, and the Rockets trading swings with Derek Rayne in the 2:00 o'clock game.

FISH PLANTS

Department of fish and game has restocked the following Monterey County streams this week: Big Sur, Nacimiento, Arroyo Seco. San Luis Obispo County: Lopez creek; Chorro reservoir. Santa Cruz County: Newell, San Vicente, Soquel, Zayante, Corralitos.

FIRE DESTROYED WESTMERE

Westmere, ten miles south of Carmel on the Coast road, was destroyed by fire Friday morning. The two wooden buildings, one used for a ranch house, the other during the war years, as a dance hall and bar, had been converted into a rest home for elderly persons, but was vacant at the time of the fire. Mrs. Nancy Dillon, operator of the rest home, had had her license revoked for beating one of her elderly charges.

The property, owned by the Smith Estate, one of whose members is George Smith, down coast resident, was inadequately covered by insurance, George Smith said.

Area Plan Would Cost Cities And County $60,000

Abraam Krushkhov, consultant, reporting to the Monterey Peninsula Area Planning Commission at its meeting last week, said that an area plan could be made in two years at a cost of $90,000. Federal matching funds of $30,000 would be available; the remaining $60,000 would be split between the county and the Peninsula cities, county putting up $15,000 per year for the 2-year period, according to his proposal. Carmel's share of the city's $15,000 each year would be a yearly $750, or a total of $1500.

The cities' percentage of contribution is based on population.

Application for federal funds must be in before July 1, or there would be a year's delay, Krushkhov said. The area planners decided to write the five city councils requesting funds. If all goes well before the five city councils, an attempt will be made to get a commitment from the county.

TOWN HOUSE ANTARTIC TALK

Speaker at the Carmel Foundation Town House on Wednesday afternoon will be Father Darkowski, chaplain of the Naval Air Force at the Naval Postgraduate School. He will talk about Operation Deep Freeze 2, the United States' 1956-58 Antarctic programs in connection with the International Geophysical Year. The program begins at 3:00 o'clock and will be followed by tea. The public is invited.

Oil and water color paintings by Si Ostermeier are on view daily, Monday through Friday, from 10:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

MASONIC STATED MEETING

Carmel Lodge No. 680, F. & A. M., will hold a stated meeting in the Masonic Temple on Friday evening, at 8:00 o'clock. A dinner at 6:30 o'clock precedes the meeting. Sojourners are invited to both events.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

In as much as the 200th anniversary of Handel is being honored this year all over the world, it seemed a pity not more local concert-goers were at All Saints' Sunday to hear the novel Handel program given by Christopher Schmidt and Robert Phillips who played little known sonatas for violin and organ, and recorder with organ continuo. Handel even gave attention to little organs in musical clocks for which he composed a Prelude and Air, Voluntary, and Minuet and Gigue which were cleverly played by Phillips on the All Saints' organ. In the last named, tickings of the clock were evident! Schmidt's performance on both violin and recorder was facile, expressive and easy to listen to as a restful hour projected by the self-dedicated service of these two young men. They can be heard again June 8 in French eighteenth century compositions. Their last concert is on June 14.

Later in June at Asilomar the Summer Workshop of the American Symphony Orchestra League for the fourth season will bring its influx of composers, conductors and orchestra players from all over the country, including Monterey County Symphony Orchestra members, under guidance of Dr. Richard Lert of Pasadena, assisted by Dr. Erno Daniel of Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Helen Thompson, the alert secretary of the League. It is hoped some rehearsals will, like last year, be open to the public, as the meeting is for 19 days. Stanley Cummings, Western member of the Board, will attend the Annual Convention at Phoenix June 11 to 13, taking pictures of Monterey Monterey County Orchestra, programs and reports, for his display, and will doubtless give an account of the League's actions on his return. The new Monterey Peninsula Arts and Humanities Council is working to help establish a headquarters for the League on the Peninsula which we trust will succeed. The summer workshop is provided for by a grant from the Ford Foundation.

Mary Lindsay-Oliver is presenting seven of her students in voice and piano Sunday, June 21 at the Carmel All Saints' Parish Hall at 5:00 o'clock in an advanced program. It will be open to the public.

Richard Turner of Carmel, well known, gifted young man who shares a studio with other artists at Pacific Grove, will be one of the pianists. In last year's recital he was heard and liked as a baritone soloist, and at Stanford had sung with the University Choirs under Salgo before coming to Carmel. Frank Farr, Carmel, formerly a high school teacher, is engaged here in an insurance business with little practice time, but owing to an innate musical nature has achieved his piano playing. Marjorie Pegram, contralto, resident-member of All Saints' Choir, has done progressive study since the last recital, and her rich voice is being heard in the choir. Dolores, dramatic soprano, Pacific Grove, whose father was a famous singer in Germany, was brought up in a musical atmosphere but never studied voice before coming to the Lindsay-Oliver Studio. She may surprise those who heard her last time. Besides being the mother of three children she holds an exacting daily job. Gilbert Schoenbrod, tenor, known as a Carmel artist and father of David Schoenbrod, Church of the Wayfarer soloist on last year's program but out of town since, will make his first public performance, never having studied singing before coming to Lindsay-Oliver last November. Ora Fallis, mezzo, former member of the Mission Choir, has been a student about two years and hopes to be back this week from a visit to a sick relative in Arizona. Dorothy Lind, contralto, also studying piano, has sung and acted in a play and chorus at the Wharf Theatre. Nancy Caravan, the talented six year old who made her mark as a pianist on last year's program is visiting her grandmother in France, but will have an appearance later, as well as others. The program will be published later.

SYMPHONY TO SELECT CONDUCTOR TONIGHT

The board of directors of the Monterey County Symphony Association meets tonight to select a successor to Conductor Gregory Millar who resigned last month for reasons of health.

Applications, over 20 in number, have been received from conductors all over the United States and one from Austria, according to Eugene Harrah, first vice president of the Symphony Association. A number of the conductors have been personally interviewed by Symphony directors.

Public announcement of Mr. Millar's successor will be made to Symphony Association members at the annual membership meeting next Thursday evening. New board members will be elected at the same meeting.

School Board Sees Preliminary Budget Of $1,441,108.00

Carmel Unified School District Board had first look at a preliminary budget for 1959-60, which shows an increase of $159,233 over last year, and still needs to find $32,393 to balance.

No alarm was expressed since the budget contained all the requests of all the department heads, some of which could be pared down, according to Assistant Superintendent Wayne Greenfield. Also, anticipated tax revenue was figured conservatively, he said.

The budget provides for salary raises for both teachers and classified employees, not yet approved by the board.

Total preliminary budget: $1,441,108. Last year's: $1,249,482.

Council Says Yes To One Pine Removal, Continues Another

The City council granted one pine removal request, on its tree tour Tuesday, denied another and continued the third.

George H. Westcott was told he may remove a pine to permit construction of a driveway at Torres near Fifth, but was denied permission to remove an oak. Raymond Menes' request for removal of a leaning pine at Santa Fe and Second was denied.

J. M. Roberts was given a permit to construct a 14 foot driveway, but his request for removal of a pine he believes encroaches was continued. Wait and see how much the driveway construction weakens the roots, the council decided.

Council said yes to the Sunset School's request to trim trees that interfere with lighting at the Sunset playfield. Approved C. R. Cornelison's blacktopped walkway (already in) at Surf Tides Lodge, Fifth Avenue and Mission, with a note for the city's insurers to inspect a drain pipe there. Would it be considered a pedestrian hazard?

Continued R. Catlin's variance request for rock pathway and grass sidewalk area at Trade Winds Inn, Mission and Third, until the city's insurance carriers can check on it. Continued the Pacific Gas and Electric Company's request to top and shape cypresses on the East Side of San Antonio, from Ocean to Thirteenth; also continued the fire department's request to open Santa Fe to Fourth Avenue, and Fourth Avenue between Santa Rita and Santa Fe, so that property owners in the area could be notified in writing that such action is under consideration and could offer protests.

The property owners' wishes in this matter will be influential in determining the council's final decision.

The council approved reduction of the side walk width to 10 feet along the east side of San Carlos between Sixth and Ocean, the pine and palm to be left, and three spaces for additional trees to be provided.

Questing Tree Roots Hold Up Ordinance

Last night the city council postponed first reading of an ordinance requiring property owners to repair dangerous sidewalks and making the property owner liable for injuries that may result because

... ARE FUN!

... a hot dog on the end of a stick sizzling and oozing its goodness over a wood fire.

It's fun—let's keep it that way!

Remember—Only you can PREVENT FOREST FIRES

of the condition of the sidewalk.

The proposed ordinance provides that if a property owner has not repaired his sidewalk within 14 days after receiving notice from the street superintendent, the city will make the repairs and bill the property owner for costs.

There is a provision for a hearing of a property owner's complaint on the amount of the bill, and the city council may make adjustments as it sees fit.

But there is not a stated provision that the council will make adjustments and share liability where the damage results from tree root activity, so city attorney John Morse was asked to work up something with this contingency in mind. Meanwhile the "sidewalk committee" will check up on how much sidewalk damage is attributable to tree root activity.

This ordinance has been in and out of the hopper for nearly a year. One problem, how would the city be able to collect if the property owner refuses to pay, has been solved. The county, which collects the city's taxes for it, will not carry such bills as tax liens, or wouldn't until City Attorney John Morse found that in the case of sidewalk repair, the county is required to do so, by state code.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian
Some 46 published books are listed as having been written by Louis Golding, the last of which is Goodbye to Ithaca, an account of his journey to Greece. Having been a student of Greek literature for many years, he enjoyed his trip the more for having waited for it and prepared for it. This is a love story, a true love story, the love of a man for a fabled region. Rockets with cameras riding in their instrument compartments are bidding fair to revolutionize our concepts of the earth we live on. A book which explains some of these changing concepts is entitled Planet Earth and was written by Karl Stumpf.

The title of the next book sounds like a mystery story but the book is non-fiction and was written by a man who spent several weeks wandering alone on the lost islands and forgotten lands of the Caribbean. The author is Rene Puisseuseau, and the title of his book is Someone Will Die Tonight in the Caribbean. His was an incredible journey and his book is full of fascinating people, sights, and sounds.

Gordon Langley Hall was a newspaperman who covered the travels of the British Royal family for the press. His recent book entitled Princess Margaret is a charming portrait of a lovely girl who leads a difficult life, ever in the public eye. The book is illustrated with photographs.

It seems that when John Loughlin was three years of age he was given up by his physicians. His heart was damaged by fever and it was thought impossible that he could even live to grow up. Now well over sixty, he has written a book about the diet way to a healthy heart and entitled it 90 Ways to a Better Heart. Read it and discuss it with your doctor, if you like. Perhaps it may help.

The group of new novels for this week include two which should have a special mention. One is called The Rape of the Fair Country. It was written by Alexander Cordell. This book, which has been compared to Llewellyn's How Green Was My Valley, is another story of Wales of a century ago. It is the iron-smelting furnaces and the people who own them and the other people who work in them. It is poverty, and work, and love, and tears, and also much laughter. This is a book you will enjoy and remember.

The second novel is Pearl Buck's Command the Morning. The book has had a variety of reviews. The problem is the atomic bomb, studied from the view point of the people concerned with the making and the using of it. Some reviewers say it is a good book, others say not. Make up your own minds on this one.

The other day someone abandoned a house sign in the library. It is a carved redwood sign bearing the name Adams. Some house of Adams is doing without its sign. We have it.

First Theatre Review

BY CAROLYN ELSTOB

In choosing Bertha the Sewing Machine Girl for the First Theatre of Monterey's celebration of Monterey's 189th birthday, and the 105th production through 22 years of uninterrupted performances by Troupers of the Gold Coast, producer Dene Denny has proved a master showman. The fast-paced delightfully blood-and-thunder melodrama opened on Friday night with every player out to give the capacity audience thrills, chills and laughs. They succeeded.

From the rise of the curtain up on the dismal scene of a New York City loft building where three young beauties (two virtuous, the third a virtual fiend) are peddling their youth away at their sewing machines, every member of the audience shed sophistication and sat forward to see sin ground down under the dainty heel of godness and light.

Patsy Ramsey as Bertha, with her pale oval face, her drooping slimness, her fluttering hands and fade-away voice, convinced the audience she was underfed, underprivileged and misunderstood. The third 12-hour-a-day seamstress, whose counter love story endures to the final curtain, was pretty talented Pamela Beales. And finally, making up the quartet of actresses in the large cast, character woman of the Troupers of the Gold Coast, Madeleine Hicks, portrays, with vinegar acidity, the heartless Jane Pinch. The swish of her ample hips, the bobbing of her bonnet, her querulous raspings and fist thumpings all go to create a living Jane Pinch.

Honors amongst the actors are difficult to gauge because of the uniformity of outstanding talent and smooth performance.

Tall handsome, no match for sly connivings, but oh so good and virile, Joseph Dalglish, new to Peninsula audiences, has much to offer in experience and talent. He looked and played the leading role with ease and confidence. Arturo Macias, Bob Higbee and Ron Robertson (who later appeared as MC of the Olio) are also newcomers behind First Theatre footlights. All experienced, they delineated character roles with professional finish, giving freshness and enthusiasm to their parts. Outstanding was the performance of James D. Hall, also taking his initial bow as a Gold Coaster. As the convivial drunkenne'er-do-well, he was lovable as well as hilarious. Familiar to Peninsula audiences, veteran character actor Wayne Edwards as the miserly cruel Caleb Carson, sustained his mean-souled role in every line of his hatchet countenance, and every whining phrase he uttered. Al Olinger was a grand villain. Gene Eplett, as the Judge, characterized a sly old rascal who liked a whispered slightly soiled story, with unflinching individuality. John Clemons as the down-and-out, and Frank Treat, III, as the Officer, lent importance to supporting roles. Little Steve Robertson sold his newspapers with all the eagerness of a Gold Coast Troupier in the making.

Bertha got her man, the villainess got shot dead, the pure in heart were rewarded, and so the play ended with a standing ovation from the first night audience. The one-man orchestra took over. Susan Lee, at the piano, is to hundreds of First Theatre regulars a show in herself. Her seemingly endless repertoire of old favorites makes the Singing School (with audience participation) the fun fest of the evening.

The Olio that followed Bertha included ten variety acts. The entire cast participated, appearing singly or in the ensembles. And there was a plus, Barbara Ziegweid was a rip-roaring success in her dramatic renditions of these sob favorites, My Man, and Bill Bailey.

So much for the on stage talent, but there were three behind the scenes who were the winners of top credits: Charles Thomas for his splendid direction, his amazing eye and ear for detail and nuance, his tempo and variation of mood. Mr. Thomas was also responsible for the sets that created the atmosphere of a century past.

Rhoda Johnson, costume designer and authority on early American fashions has, in the current production, topped her splendid record of 22 years. From the shoddiest coat worn by the down-and-out to the gleaming wedding gown worn by Bertha and the exquisite lace affair worn by Barbara Ziegweid, the period costumes were a triumph. Several were valuable heirlooms donated to the First Theatre wardrobe. Many were not only designed but sewn by Rhoda Johnson, star in her field.

Kay Knudsen handled her spot lights and gelatins as she has through all the shows since 1937, with flawless technique and artistry.

Bertha, the Sewing Machine Girl plays every Friday and Saturday at 8:15.

CHERRY BLOSSOMS

Painted by Chikkyo Ono

Images of abstract spread across page — blossoms and branches, delicately balanced, pattern a morning sky . . .

Blossoms, branches and sky — nothing more.

Mind imagines
the gray-black trunk swelling from ground sprung with green;
from curve of pebbled pool.

Come with me, Artist.
Lean in the grasses.

See how our faces, like polished cloisonne, gleam through water —
one with your blossomed branches, with your blue and sun washed sky.

Feel
on your clever fingers how wind smooth petals fall . . .

—GERTRUDE MAY LUTZ

COMPLETION

On trembling legs,
Like a newborn fawn,
I wobble along the curving
Daisy-dotted pathway
Of creative expression,
Seeking to find you
At the deep reflecting pool,
The drinking place,
The spring-flow of life.
Please come to me there,
Because without you
I am a circle that never meets.

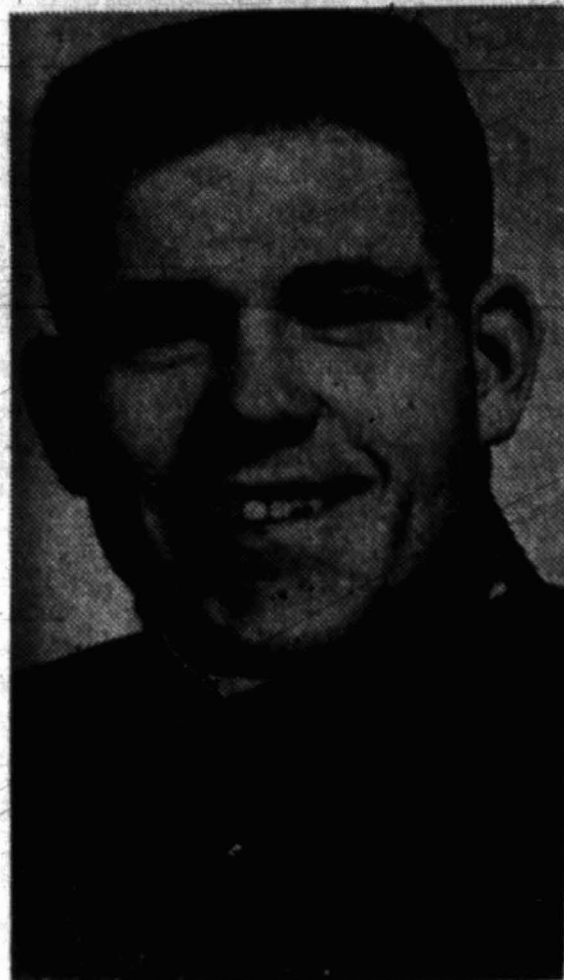

—CLAUDINE KEINONEN.

DAWN FOR CANDY

The sidewalk slopes dark tape toward dawn, small driveways metering it in twenty-five foot frontages. So still these homelets, who would think to find life stirring? Yet, plump on the curb at Number Forty-Six,
there blooms a bush, a seedling child.
Four chocolate branches stem from a trunk of flanneled peppermint.
On top, beneath a foam of licorice, two lemon drops glint from their cushioned cinnamon.
The long sky polishes its disk of sun to brighten pavements, kindling foreground grey to motley and live chocolate to gold.
A robin in wet grass begins to chirp.

—HELEN FAULKNER.

Paul A. Chalmers, son of Mrs. Julia A. Chalmers, graduated yesterday from the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. He was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the infantry and received a bachelor of science degree. Paul was active in the Portuguese, camera and weight-lifting clubs at West Point and was a cadet sergeant during his senior year. Before entering West Point, he was a student at Monterey Peninsula College.

Mrs. Brownell

Mrs. Kathleen (Kay) Brownell, wife of Dr. Raymond E. Brownell, died on Sunday morning in a local hospital after a short illness. In 1930 she came here as superintendent of nurses at the newly-opened Grace Deere Velie Metabolic Clinic. A year later illness caused her to resign from this position. She operated a dress shop in Pine Inn for a short time, then, on July 23, 1933, she and Dr. Brownell were married.

Mrs. Brownell was born in Wales, North Dakota, on July 23, 1898. As a child she went to live in Canada with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Foley. She grew up and received her early education in Stoughton. In 1920 she graduated from the Edmonton Hospital School of Nursing in Edmonton, Canada. For the next two years she was superintendent of nurses at Elbert Hospital in Detroit, Michigan, then headed the nursing staff of the Wyandotte Hospital in Michigan until 1925. The following year Mrs. Brownell was superintendent of nurses in the city hospital of Twin Falls, Idaho. She next came to California and was superintendent of nurses in the Whittier hospital before spending four years as head of the nursing staff at San Luis Obispo General Hospital.

During this time, Dr. R. A. Kocher, asked her to take the position of nursing superintendent at the Carmel clinic, later to become the Peninsula Community Hospital.

Mrs. Brownell joined the staff of the local Red Cross Blood Bank when it was established and continued her work with this unit until her last illness. She was a member of the Bridge League, the Monterey Peninsula Country Club and the Beach Club.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a stepdaughter, Mrs. Sue Brownell McLean of Calumet, Michigan, who came here to be with Mrs. Brownell during her illness; and two brothers, John and William Foley of Stoughton, Canada.

Requiem Mass was celebrated on Wednesday morning in Carmel Mission following brief services at Mission Mortuary. Burial was in the Monterey Catholic Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were George Gooden, Dr. Edward Leach, Dr. James Finley, Arnold Bradley, Frank Porter and Dr. Ellis Bovik. Active pallbearers were Warner Keeley, Ralph Thompson, Dr. H. Baughn, Fred Godwin, David Eldridge and Hampton Stewart.

Former Carmelite Returns

Mrs. Katharine Vander Roest Belknap, who lived in Carmel from 1925-28, has returned to become a permanent resident. She has a house on Casanova Street and is renewing friendships made 30 years ago when, as a pianist and music critic for the Pine Cone, she took an active part in the musical life of Carmel. During this period Mrs. Belknap gave a piano recital at the Golden Bough Theatre and another performance in collaboration with dancers Betty Horst and Ruth Austin. The latter is now Mrs. Byington Ford.

Mrs. Belknap has been living in Miami, Florida. She came back here, found Carmel as attractive as ever and decided to remain, "although I have difficulty finding my way about, the town has grown so much since I left."

Class of '44 Reunion

Carmel High School Class of 1944 is having their third reunion on Saturday. Members meet at the High School at 1:00 o'clock, then go to Los Laureles in Carmel Valley for an afternoon of swimming with their children. At 7:00 o'clock the group, without children, will reassemble at the Mission Ranch for dinner. Mrs. Mariquita Brey, senior class advisor for the Class of '44, will be a special guest. The class will hold a meeting and election of officers during dinner. "From here on everyone will be on their own," states Class of '44 president Bob Holm.

Mary Osborne SJS Graduate

A bachelor of arts degree and teaching credential will be awarded to Mary A. Osborne at San Jose State College commencement exercises on June 12. She has specialized in kindergarten and primary grade instruction studies.

Mrs. Kohner Grandmother

Mrs. Anna Kohner, third grade teacher at River School, has been happily helping for the past week with the care of her first grandchild, Jeffrey David Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown (Sandra Kohner) of Pacific Grove. His birth weight was seven pounds, six ounces.

Jeffrey's maternal grandfather was the late Herbert Kohner, principal of Del Monte School in Monterey. His paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. David Brown of Oakdale, Nebraska.

Second Son For The Goodwins

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodwin (Alicia Orcutt) of Lafayette are parents of a second son, John Cooper Goodwin, born on May 26 in the Alta Bates Hospital in Berkeley. His birth weight was nine pounds. John's brother is Robert Goodwin, Jr. His grandparents are Mrs. Charles W. Schultz and Mr. Claire V. Goodwin of Pebble Beach.

Capezio's Marya Morton Here

One of Carmel's newest residents is Marya Morton, publicity director for Capezio's, New York shoe firm. On Tuesday she moved into a house on Carmelo Street south of Tenth Avenue.

Miss Morton came here on business in December and decided to make Carmel her permanent home, even if such a move meant life would be "a little more difficult" in relation to her work and travel schedules. In the past two months Marya Morton has been to New York twice, to Florida and Oregon. This week she is unpacking and arranging possessions in her new home.

Calistoga Hot, Says Paul

A postcard from Calistoga, where Paul Mercurio is vacationing, reports the sulphur baths are really hot, and that on his way north he stopped in San Francisco last week end and saw two Chicago Cubs-Giants games.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE-SERMON

The scientific basis of spiritual healing will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator."

Luke's account of the healing by Christ Jesus of the "man which had the withered hand" will be read, including this passage: "And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other" (Luke 6:10).

Correlative selections read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (313:23-26): "Jesus of Nazareth was the most scientific man that ever trod the globe. He plunged beneath the material surface of things, and found the spiritual cause."

The Golden Text is from Revelation (15:3): "Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints."

The meeting, arranged by the Council's first Vice-President, Mr. Hans von Richter, is open to the public without charge.

Gunnar Casts Greedy Eyes On Library's Adney Inheritance

dinance and leave the council with the operation of the library on its hands..." growled Mayor John Chitwood.

Gunnar, probably getting a vision of himself checking out books, desisted, and the council told City Clerk Larry Rose to tell the library board that yes, the council would advance the library $1400 for settling up estate costs, so they could get their inheritance out of the grasp of the county administrator, and avoid a forced sale. The library board intends to sell their lots at their leisure. They may need the city advance if they run low on funds before the library tax moneys come in in the fall.

It was the information that the library might want an advance that brought the lots to Gunnar's attention.

Other Council Business

Council approved a step-up on the salary schedule, an automatic time of service pay raise, for three city employees: Police Officer George A. Vargas, Stenographer Eleanor S. Shepherd, Building Inspector Floyd Adams.

Authorized vacations for Chief of Police Clyde Klatmann, (he's rented a cabin at Sierra City, fishing) June 8-21; and Fire Chief Robert Smith, at convenience of the department, depending on availability of temporary duty personnel. Accepted the resignation of paid Fireman Cyrus Hargis, effective July 1, upon return of Paul Artellan, who has been in the hospital.

Approved employment of Dick

Lawitzke as police desk clerk during the leave of absence of Lester Fletcher, and employment of Daniel P. Yurkovich during the summer as vacation relief.

The transfer of a business license for The Piccadilly Nursery, Dolores between Ocean and Seventh, from Stuart MacLachlan to Charles and Gretchen Rogers received council approval; also, the transfer of location of Michael Borodin's real estate office from the southeast corner of Ocean and Monte Verde to the southwest corner of Dolores and Seventh; also, a sign, Laura Chester, Realtor, at Dolores and Seventh.

Council refused claim for $50,000 damages, made by Virginia Piercy through her attorney E. N. Jackson, for injuries purportedly received as a result of loss of footing in the gutter of Ocean Avenue between Lincoln and Monte Verde, February 23, 1959. The matter was referred to the city's insurance adjusters.

Carmel Scouts Stop Forest Fire

action in beating at the flames when they started, the Carmel Scouts prevented the blaze spreading from roadside grass to shrubbery and pines. Ranger Ramstead informed the Scouts that he would commend their work to the Monterey Bay Area Scout Council.

Troop 32 with their Scoutmaster, Sam Beard, were on an overnight camping trip to the Pinnacles. Kovacevich, Neroda, Beard and Baldwin did not accompany the rest of the troop on a hike as they had fulfilled requirements for a hiker's badge. They remained at their overnight campsite in the Pinnacles campgrounds. Other campers reported a car drove away as the fire started. A burnt match and an unburned match were discovered near the burn. Rangers suspect careless smokers may have started the fire. Troop 32 is sponsored by the Carmel Rotary Club.

May Presents Atomic Plan Tax Reduction

servicing costs, and lost fines, $5,000; property tax reduction of four cents.

Levy a rent tax on commercial property, assuming $1 million annual rent receipts taxes at 1.5 mills, $1,500; property tax reduction, one cent.

Land transfer tax, assuming $1 million value in land transfers taxed at 1.5 mills, $1500, one cent.

Miscellaneous income, such as $25 tree removal permits, merchant door shake fee, others, $1,000; one cent.

Use tax, motel and hotel lodgings, assumes 850 units averaging $10 per day at 70 percent occupancy to yield $2,172,000, taxed at one percent, $21,700; property tax reduction 17 cents.

These new sources he intended to present "for study," last night. He'll try again at budget session.

Jennie Goes To Norway

Jennie Hill, Carmel High School's American Field Service summer exchange student, has received word that she will go to Norway. As yet she does not know exactly where but is expecting a letter from the AFS office in New York with more information, also another letter from the Norwegian family with whom she will live while abroad.

Audience Had Fun At "Exhaustion" Council Meeting

Mayor Chitwood envisioned all the city's fire equipment putting a fire out at Serra School and a holocaust breaking out in Carmel at the same time. Norberg and Buffington favored giving the protection to the 375 Serra School children. Mrs. Josephine Root, in the audience, challenged the mayor. Would he hold the equipment in Carmel if a fire broke out in Serra School? He said he would. She said it was an inhumane and unchristian attitude. "We have 'In God We Trust' even on our money," she said.

Council decided to continue it until September before school reopens.

Michel MacKay wanted the city to share in the $7.50 nightly police traffic duty at the Forest Theatre on performance nights. Bert Heron backed her up. The council was split on changing policy and the argument went on. Finally the council decided to help out for the three summer productions.

Then there was a debate over whether or not the city corporation yard on Junipero Street should be the site of a post office-city hall combination. No action except to notify the post office department that if no satisfactory bids are offered—they're to be opened June 18—the city would be "interested."

John Hudelson and Waldo Hicks pointed out the absurdity, and expense to property owners, for plumbing contractors to have to see three city officials before they can start digging a sewer, post a heavy bond, etc., etc. Council will do something about the old ordinance that was dusted off in a hurry when the Sanitary District abruptly dropped responsibility.

Gyorgi Biller

Mrs. Gyorgi Mary Biller died yesterday afternoon in a Salinas hospital after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Biller was born on April 13, 1907, in Budapest, Hungary. She came from Hungary to live in Carmel two years ago. Her home was at Fifteenth Avenue and Monte Verde Street.

Survivors are her husband, Charles U. Biller of Carmel; five children, Bela and Goerina Vargyi, living in Canada, and Charlie, Irene and Margaret Biller of Carmel; two brothers, Andrew and John Toth of Canada; and her mother, Mrs. Andrew Toth, also living in Canada.

Rosary will be recited tomorrow evening at Paul Mortuary in Pacific Grove at 8:00 o'clock. Requiem Mass will be celebrated in Carmel Mission at 9:00 o'clock on Saturday morning. Burial will be in San Carlos Catholic Cemetery, Monterey.

Hans Wolff

Hans Wolff, 72, was found unconscious yesterday morning about 8:00 o'clock by his wife, Cilka, who called a local physician. Mr. Wolff was taken to the Peninsula Community Hospital in the Red Cross ambulance operated by the Carmel Fire Department. He died shortly after arrival, apparently from an overdose of barbiturates, according to the report of the County Coroner's office.

An autopsy failed to reveal any anatomical cause of death but toxicology tests may reveal if death was due to drugs. Robert Wallace, assistant coroner, said this morning. Mr. Wolff was believed to be despondent because of ill health, he added.

Besides his wife, Mr. Wolff is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lilo Zinger of Forest Hills, New York, and a son, Peter Wolesley, living in Alaska. He was born in Guben, Germany, on April 13, 1888, and had been a resident of Carmel for a year. His home was on San Carlos Street between Tenth and Eleventh Avenues.
